EXPERIENCE

Creative Manager University of Arizona Bookstores 2016 – 2020

At UA Bookstores, I managed the creative team and led the creative direction for the department. My role was to act as a teacher to my team, brainstorming new concepts, innovating design approaches and researching the impacts of visual culture. I led both individual and collaborative campaigns for brands such as Apple, Ray-Ban, Champion, HydroFlask and Nike while implementing a focus on diversity, inclusion and accessibility.

Digital Media Coordinator Tucson Jewish Community Center 2015 – 2016

At the JCC, I excelled as a web designer, developer, video producer, content writer and marketing expert. Shortly after being hired, I was promoted to manage the organization's IT department while continuing my role in marketing. I worked to secure a $120,000 annual grant and surpassed projected summer camp program earnings by $130k.

Audio Engineer University of Arizona Presents 2013 – 2016

I supported the technical aspects of numerous international acts and lecturers, including: Noam Chomsky, Glenn Greenwald, Edward Snowden, Gabrielle Giffords & Mark Kelly, Jay Leno, DakhaBrakha, Chris Thile, Jon Baptiste & Stay Human, and many more.

COMMUNITY

Executive Director Llacuna 2016 – Present

In 2016 I started Llacuna, a 501(c)(3) public charity organization, to help build stronger communities and research sustainable practices. We are currently providing aid to refugee groups, increasing access to independent media, and coordinating with activists to create and strategize digital content for public awareness campaigns.

Editor-in-Chief Radio Free 2010 – Present

I founded Radio Free (radiofree.org) to create a platform for volunteer, citizen journalism. Currently, the focus is on creating an independent network of community newsrooms and digital tools for journalists to help provide reliable news for people, not profits.
